Accused Golam @ Gulam Ansari is produced from J.C through VC mode and remanded to J.C.

One bail petition along with fresh vokalatnama, is filed on behalf of the accused person namely, Golam @ Gulam

Ansari.

Copy is served.

Ld. PP-in-charge is present by filing hazira.

Ld. Advocate for the accused person is present.

Bail petition is moved.

Heard both sides.

Perused the case record.

Ld. Advocate submitted that this accused person is in custody since 15.02.2026. The accused was taken in PC for three days. Ld. Advocate submitted that the allegations brought against the accused person is fabricated. The accused person is not involved in the offence. Ld. Advocate further submitted that possession has been shown from the custody of the accused person of suspected brown sugar weighing 100 grams approx. The total quantity also falls below commercial quantity. It is further submitted that the purpose of detention for sake of investigation is already over and considering the fact that further detention in the interest of investigation is not necessary, bail may be granted to the accused person on any condition.

Ld. PP submitted that the seizure shows recovery of suspected brown sugar which is below commercial quantity. The procedure of search and seizure has been properly performed. Ld. PP further submitted that the CD is not produced on this date. Ld. P.P accordingly, prayed for rejection of bail petition.

I have considered entire circumstances. I take into considerations of the fact that the statutory bar of section 37 of NDPS Act does not apply to this case as the total quantity of seizure is below commercial quantity.

I also take into consideration that the investigation has proceeded to a good extent. The requirement of PC is already over.

This is a case where recovery of suspected brown sugar is shown from the custody of the accused person as appears from seizures list dated 15.02.2026. But as the quantity falls below commercial quantity, the statutory bar under Section 37 of NDPS Act does not apply to this case.

At this stage, considering the entire aspects, I am of the view that further detention in custody of this person is no more required in the interest of investigation.

Accordingly, prayer for bail in respect of the accused person stands allowed.

Accused Golam @ Gulam Ansari may find bail of Rs. 10,000/- with one surety of like amount, subject to the Satisfaction of Ld. C.J.M, Uttar Dinajpur at Raiganj and on further condition that the accused person shall co- operate with the investigation. He shall meet the I.O on every alternative day till further orders.
