

NDPS Case No. 47 of 2025
CNR NO WBUD01002964-2025
J.O CODE WB00993

Order No. 14
17.03.2026

Regular P.O is on Spl. SIR Duty.

Today is fixed for production and evidence of CSW No. 4.

Sole namely Rajesh Saha @ Bangru is produced from J/C through VC mode and remanded to J/C.

Ld. Advocate for the accused person is present.

No witness is present today.

At this stage, one bail petition is filed praying for bail to the accused named above.

Ld. P.P in charge is present and filed a petition u/s 37 of NDPS Act praying for rejection of bail.

Copy served.

Bail petition is moved.

Heard both sides.

Perused the case record.

Ld. Advocate for the accused person submitted that the accused person is in custody since 30.08.2025. Ld. Advocate on behalf of the accused person further submitted that the allegations brought against the accused person is fabricated. The accused person is not involved in the offence. Moreover, the trial has already been commenced and he has been detained in custody since long. So, the accused person may be released on bail on any condition.

Ld. PP submitted that the seizure shows recovery of 50 bottles of Phensedyl, which is of commercial quantity. The procedure of search and seizure has been properly performed. Ld. PP further submitted that trial is going on. Ld. P.P emphasis that in respect of this case, the statutory bar u/s 37 of NDPS Act is applicable. So considering the nature of the allegations, at this stage, it shall not be proper to release the accused on bail.

After hearing of both sides and on perusal of the case record, it appears that commercial quantity of contraband articles is shown to have been seized from the possession of the accused person. Trial is going on. Already two witnesses have been examined. Moreover, there is no prima facie material to hold that the accused person is in no way involved with the alleged offence. There is also no such material to hold that if the accused person is granted bail, he shall not indulge into similar kind of offence in future. Moreover, at this stage I do not find any special circumstances to consider the bail application on behalf of the accused.

In the circumstances I am not inclined to allow the prayer for bail in respect of the accused person. Hence, the bail prayer of the accused person namely, Rajesh Saha @ Bangru stands rejected at this stage.

To date(19.03.2026) for production of the accused person and evidence of CSW No. 5.
