	22.05.2024	The plaintiffs have preferred the present petition under Order XXII Rule 2 r/w Section 151 of CPC. Ld counsel appearing on behalf of plaintiff had stated that the plaintiff namely Ram Lakhan Bhuinya died on 04/11/2022 leaving behind his widow Sumitra Devi, three sons namely Ram Sevak Bhuinya, Sonu Bhuinya and Sanni Bhuinya as his legal heirs and legal representatives. That since the plaintiff has died therefore it is necessary to delete his name from the cause title of the plaint and in his place his aforesaid widow and sons being his legal heirs may be substituted. That the petition for the substitution has been filed bonafide and in good faith within the statutory period of limitation. No rejoinder had been filed by the opposite side Heard, perused the petition as well as case record, substitution petition was filed on time and to properly and completely adjudicate the dispute between the parties presence of necessary party is necessary, hence , M.C.A. 849/2023 is disposed as allowed. Plaintiff to take necessary step. Put un on 26-06-2024. (Dictated) Sd/- (Chandan Kumar Goswami) Civil Judge(Jr. Div), Ranchi JH02083
