

Spl. NDPS Case No.15 of 2017

Order No.14
13.06.2018

Accused Md. Islam is produced from JC.

Today is fixed for production and submission of IO's report. No report of IO submitted.

Ld. PP in charge is present.

On scrutiny of the case record it appears that statutory period of 180 days from the date of first production of accused has been over but IO failed to submit CS against the accused. It appears on earlier occasion dated 22.12.2017, IO prayed for time for sending the samples of seized articles State Drug Control & Research Laboratory. Said prayer was allowed. But IO did not pray for extension of time to submit charge sheet. However, his prayer for sending the sample for chemical examination was allowed.

Thereafter, on 15.03.2018 again similar type of prayer of IO was allowed but he did not feel it necessary to pray for extension of time for submission of charge sheet.

Since then further three months is over but IO is unable to submit charge sheet or report in final form in this case.

Under the circumstances, IO is directed to show cause as to why the investigation of the case will not be stopped and accused will be discharged u/s.167(5) Cr.P.C.

Accused is already on bail and he is in custody in another case.
To 27.06.2018 for production and show cause by the IO.
