3. Learned counsel for applicant has vehemently argued that the applicant/accused has been falsely implicated in the present. He has further argued that the applicant/accused is an innocent person and has committed no offence. Chemical Examiner has not been received so far and prayed for releasing the applicant on bail.

4. On the other hand, learned Public Prosecutor for State has hotly opposed the contentions and has argued that the applicant/accused was found in conscious possession of 10 grams intoxicant powder. Moreover, report of Forensic Science Laboratory is yet to be received. Thus, application be dismissed.

5. SI Dharampal No.119/R posted at Anandpur Sahib has appeared and suffered a separate statement that FIR of the present case has been registered against accused Amandeep @ Lakhu under Section 22-61-85 NDPS Act as the recovery of 10gm intoxicant powder has been effected from the said accused. The FSL Report is still pending.

6. After giving my thoughtful consideration to the rival submissions and on careful perusal of the averments put in the application, contents of the FIR, perusal of the record produced by SI Dharampal, coupled with the assistance rendered, it is apt to make mention that it is a case qua alleged recovery of 10 grams intoxicant Powder from conscious possession of the applicant/accused. The applicant-accused has been custody since 04.06.2025. He is ready to face the trial. The prosecution has not given any tentative date on which the report of FSL can be received. The guilt of accused is yet to be established. No useful purpose shall be served by keeping him behind the bars for a longer period. Division Bench of Hon'ble Punjab & Haryana High Court in Criminal Misc. No.1140 of 2012 decided on 30.01.2014 titled as "Inderjit Singh @ Ladi vs State of Punjab" has been pleased to observe that "in case there is delay, this would entitle the offender of at least interim bail till the report is finally received". Since in the present case also, report of FSL is yet to be received, thus keeping in view the above said recovery from the possession of applicant/accused, I am of the view that the accused is entitled to get interim bail till report of Chemical Examiner is finally received as per ratio of the above said judgment. Accordingly, the above named applicant/accused is ordered to be released on interim bail till receiving of Chemical Examiner Report subject to furnishing of bail bonds in the sum of Rs.50,000/- with one surety in the like amount to the satisfaction of learned Illaqa/Duty Magistrate subject to the following conditions:- the bail bonds as well as surety bonds furnished on her behalf shall be forfeited if on the basis of report of Chemical Examiner, the contraband allegedly recovered from the possession of the applicant/accused is found to be falling in the commercial quantity. In case, contraband allegedly recovered from the possession of the accused found is to be falling in non-commercial quantity, the interim order shall be confirmed automatically and bail bonds and surety bonds furnished by her as per this order shall be ordered to be treated as bail bonds and surety bonds against the final order.
