

State vs Vinod Kumar BA-159-2020

FIR no.74 dated 22.05.2019

U/s 174 A IPC

PS Sadar Malout.

Present: APP for State,
Sh. R.P.S.Guro Adv. Counsel for the applicant/accused
Ankush Kumar.

Order:-

1. Heard on the bail application moved by applicant-accused Ankush Kumar. Applicant averred that he has been falsely implicated in the present case and he never committed any offence as alleged in the FIR. The applicant further undertook not to misuse the concession of bail, if granted. He averred that as his presence is no more required for the purposes of investigation, thus, he be released on bail.

2. Notice of the bail application was given to the prosecution. Learned APP orally opposed the bail application but did not file any written reply.

3. Accused-applicant has been arrested for commission of offence under section 174A of IPC. Trial of the case is likely to take sufficient long time. No useful purpose will be served by keeping the accused-applicant in custody rather it will be a burden on the state exchequer. As such, accused-applicant is ordered to be released on bail on his furnishing bail bonds in the sum of Rs.40,000/- with one surety in the like amount. Further, his bail is subject to the following conditions:-

1. That he shall not jump over the bail or tamper with the prosecution evidence nor shall try to win over the witnesses.
2. That he shall join investigation as and when required by the police.
3. That he shall not leave the country without prior permission of the court.

Requisite bonds furnished which is checked, accepted and attested. Release warrants be issued forthwith.

Pronounced.
