

Inderjit Singh Vs. State.

Present: Sh. Pawan Kumar Sharma Advocate for petitioners through V.C.
Sh. Kuldeep Sahni Addl.PP for the State through V.C.

Virtual Court Room has been set up through Vidyo APP. File has been put up before me being Duty Officer in view of prevailing situation due to outbreak of Novel Coronavirus COVID-19. Learned APP for the State and the learned counsel for the petitioners are online.

Heard. Report from P.S.Kot Ise Khan has been received, according to which the petitioners are not required in any case or in any application. However, as per report of DSP, Special Branch, Criminal Intelligence, Moga, an application no. 733 PC-4/2020 dated 16.8.2020 moved by Harbans Singh son of Ram Singh regarding committing fraud is pending investigation. In view of these circumstances, the present application stands dismissed being infructuous. It is however, ordered that if the accused/applicants are nominated or their names are added lateron in any case on the same allegations as levelled in the application aforesaid and if the arrest of accused/applicants is intended to be effected in the case so registered against them, 3 days prior notice be given to them so that they can avail of the remedy as per law. This order of mine will remain effective for three months. Application is disposed of accordingly and papers of this application be consigned to the Record Room.
