Cholamandalam DBS Financial Ltd. Vs Ramesh Kumar

Present: Sh.Manoj Chauhan, Advocate for complainant.

Today the case is fixed for appearance of accused Ramesh Kumar in pursuance of proclamation issued against him, but he has not come present in the Court. Mandatory period of 30 days from the date of issuance of proclamation against him has expired, but accused has not appeared before the Court. Case called several times since morning till 03:20 p.m., but none has appeared on behalf of accused. No further wait is justified. Hence, accused Ramesh Kumar is hereby declared as proclaimed person. An intimation in this regard be also sent to Superintendent of Police, Kaithal through the office of learned District and Sessions Judge, Kaithal for information and further necessary action.

As per Hon'ble Punjab and Haryana High Court letter No. 11766 Gaz.II17 dated 28.04.2015 whenever the accused is declared as proclaimed person under section 82 of Cr.P.C. steps should be taken to lodge an FIR against the proclaimed person for commission of offence under section 174-A of IPC/209 of BNS. Keeping in view, the said instructions, intimation in this regard be sent to quarter concerned in SP Office, Kaithal and copy of this order be also sent to this System Officer, Kaithal. Let intimation be also sent to the PO staff and the concerned SHO also so as to facilitate the registration of FIR against the proclaimed person under section 174-A of IPC/209 of BNS in the present case.

Ld. Counsel for complainant stated at bar that complainant is unable to furnish the detail of property of accused and also has got no objection in consigning the file to record room. Since the accused Ramesh Kumar has been declared as proclaimed person, therefore, the present file be consigned to the record room after due compliance. However, a red ink note be given to the effect that no part of this file shall be destroyed and be put up as and when accused is/are surrendered in the Court or produced by the police concerned.
