

Saudagar Singh Vs State of Punjab

CNR No. PBRO010063432025

CIS No.BA-2005-2025

Present: Shri R. S Sohi Advocate, counsel for applicant/accused.
Shri Vijay KUMar, Additional Public Prosecutor for State.

ORDER

1. File put up before me being Duty Judge. Sh. R.S Sohi Advocate has made a statement to the effect that the bail application filed under Section 187(3) BNSS in the present FIR may be treated as regular bail application in this case. In view of the statement given by the learned counsel for applicant/accused, the present bail application filed under Section 187(3) BNSS is considered as regular bail in this case.

2. Arguments on regular bail application moved by applicant/accused Saudagar Singh under Section 483 of BNSS, 2023 in this case bearing FIR No. 53 dated 26.04.2025 under Section 22,27,29/61/85 NDPS Act registered at Police Station City Rupnagar, heard. Main file pending the Court of Sh. Pushpinder Singh, learned Addl. Sessions Judge, Rupnagar received and perused.

3. Learned counsel for applicant/accused has argued that applicant/accused has been falsely implicated in this case. Applicant/accused was arrested on 26.04.2025. No incriminating article was recovered from his possession. The challan has already been presented and its disposal will take time. Therefore, it is prayed, that the applicant/accused may kindly be released on bail.

4. On the other hand, learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the State has argued that applicant/accused is not entitled to get the concession of bail at this stage as recovery of 11 Injections of 01 ml each of Penzin and 05 Injections 15 MG of 01 ml each of morphine Sulphate IP was effected from the possession of applicant/accused and the trial of the case is yet to be commenced. Therefore, it is prayed, that his bail application may kindly be dismissed.

5. As per allegations of the prosecution, 1 Injections of 01 ml each of Penzin and 05 Injections 15 MG of 01 ml each of morphine Sulphate IP were recovered from the possession of applicant/accused on 26.04.2025 Challan has been presented against the applicant/accused after concluding the investigation. Applicant/accused was arrested on 26.04.2025. The disposal of challan will take time. Hence, no useful purpose would be served by keeping the applicant/accused behind the bar for indefinite period as rather it will amount to be a burden on State Exchequer. Therefore, without commenting on merits of the case, the regular bail application moved by the applicant/accused is allowed and the applicant/accused is ordered to be released on bail on his furnishing bail bonds in the sum of ₹50,000/- with one surety in the like amount, to the satisfaction of learned Illaqa/Duty Magistrate, with the condition that applicant/accused will neither leave the country without prior permission of the Court nor he will tamper with the witnesses of the prosecution and he will appear before the learned trial Court on each and every date of hearing. Learned Illaqa/Duty Magistrate is directed
