Ramesh Kumar VS STATE OF PUNJAB etc.

Present: Sh. Rohit Rumana Advocate for applicant/accused Ramesh Kumar.

Ms. Veenu Ghai, APP for the State assisted by Dr. Rau P.S. Girwar Advocate for complainant.

During the course of arguments, ASI Karamjit Singh has made a statement in the court that in the present case, accused/applicant Ramesh Kumar has joined the investigation on 21.07.2023 in case FIR No. 214 dated 28.09.2021 for offences under sections 379/447/511/506/34/420 of IPC PS Canal Colony, Bathinda and his custodial interrogation is not required in this case and he is not required for further investigation.

Thus, in view of the above-said statement and keeping in view the fact that accused/applicant Ramesh Kumar has already joined the investigation and is no longer required for custodial interrogation, the order dated 12.07.2023 is hereby made absolute. However, it is clarified that in case the applicant misuses the concession of bail any time by absenting from the Court proceedings or the investigation proceedings if required by the police, then the Court shall be at liberty to cancel this bail order. File be consigned to record room.

Date of Order: 26.07.2023
