Ld. Advocate on behalf of above named accused person moves a bail petition, praying for bail on any condition.

At the very outset the Ld. Advocate for the above named accused submitted that no bail petition is either pending and or rejected before Hon'ble High Court, Calcutta. Ld. It appears from the case record that in this case charge-sheet has already been submitted against the accused person and the case is at the stage of consideration of charge and the seized contraband articles falls under commercial quantity and considering the nature and gravity of offence, and also the quantity of contraband seized articles (ie 35.589 kilograms of 'Ganja' (cannabis) as per F.I.R and there are sufficient incriminating materials against the accused and enlarging him on bail at this stage will be detrimental for the trial. Accordingly, the prayer for bail stands rejected.
