State Vs Reeta Devi

Present: Ld. APP for the State.
Sh. DP Bali, Advocate, counsel for the applicant/accused.

This order of mine shall dispose of bail application filed by accused Reeta Devi and Santokh @ Santosh Pandit on the ground that they are falsely implicated and they are in judicial custody. It is pleaded that the trial is still to start and they be granted bail.

2. In reply, Ld. APP for the State argued that they committed serious offence of kidnapping the child and they should not be granted bail.

3. Ld. APP and Ld. Defense counsel heard. As per the allegations, accused kidnapped a child of around two and half years of age. The child is recovered from the custody of the accused. Allegations against accused are serious and they are corroborated by the recovery of the child from their custody. No reason mentioned why police or complainant will falsely implicate them. Therefore, bail application stand dismissed. Papers be attached with the remand papers.
