

State Vs Parminder Singh BA 199-19

Present Sh. B.S. Malhi, Adv, counsel for accused/applicant.
 Ms. Neeraj Azad, APP for the State.

Reply not filed by the Ld. APP for the State but orally contested the application and stated that the bail of accused-applicant is rejected in the interest of justice. Heard on the bail application of surrender and bail. The offences under sections 498-A, 506, 120-B of Indian Penal Code is made out against the accused. The co-accused has already granted anticipatory bail from the learned court of Sessions. Accused is in custody since 03.06.2019. Presentation of challan and conclusion of trial is likely to take considerable time. The court is of the considered opinion that detaining him further in custody for an indefinite period till presentation of challan would not serve any purpose rather it would burden the state exchequer. Therefore, keeping in view the principal that jail is an exception and bail is a rule, accused is ordered to be released on bail on his furnishing bail bonds in the sum of Rs. 1,00,000/- with one surety of the like amount. Bail bonds and surety bonds not furnished. Papers be attached with the remand papers.
