Perused record and proceeding it appears that, the application has been filed on 29.08.2024 for issuance of Heirship Certificate. The application is pending for compliance of applicant since 03.02.2025. However, the applicant is continuously absent. Though her advocate was present on each date but she did not take any steps for the compliance of the same. Accordingly, the application was posted for steps since 14.07.2026.

02. Till today, applicant did not take any positive step in the proceeding. It shows that he has lost his interest in the suit. As such, it appears that the she is not interested to proceed with the application. The application being more than 1 and half years old, without any progress, to be considered as stale and ineffective as per guidelines given by Hon'ble Bombay High Court. As such, it requires to be disposed of for want of prosecution. In the result, I pass following order: -
