TC 17409/2026

STATE Vs. RAKESH TYAGI

E-challan Details: 68850871

Vehicle No. DL11CB7421

19.08.2026

Fresh Challan received by way of transfer and the same is verified and registered.

Present: Ld. APP for the State.

AR on behalf of accused through VC.

The cognizance of the offence is already taken by the virtual court and a fine was proposed for summary disposal of the case as per section 208 of the MV Act, 1988. The accused has exercised the option to contest the challan on web portal of the virtual traffic court and the challan is transferred to this court for further adjudication as per law.

At this stage, accusation explained to the accused through his AR in his vernacular language. Accused submits that he wishes to plead guilty for the offence mentioned in the challan. Keeping in view the plea of guilt of offence by the accused, he stands convicted.

The accused submits that he be given an opportunity to repent and reform. In my considered opinion, accused deserves an opportunity to repent and reform. Considering nature of offence, plea of guilt of accused and genuine urge on his part to repent and reform, he is admonished for the offence mentioned in the challan.

Challan disposed off.

Order be uploaded on CIS Portal.
