GP FOR HOME

The Court made the following:

ORDER:

The Writ Petition has been filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India seeking the following relief:-

“...to issue a writ order or direction more particularly one in the nature of mandamus declaring the action of the Respondents No 5 in summoning the petitioners to their police station without any registration of crime and interfering with the civil disputes as illegal arbitrary and amounts to abdication of statutory duties cast up on them and also violative of Articles 14 and 21 of the Constitution of India and consequently direct the Respondents 2 to 5 not to interfere with the life and liberty of the Petitioners unless authorized by the law and not to involve in the civil disputes pass...”

2. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned
Assistant Government Pleader.

3. Petitioner No.1 is the husband of respondent No.6.

4. Mr. Venkata Mohan Rao Pathakota, the learned counsel for the petitioners, submits that the petitioners, who are the husband, father-in-law, and sister-in-law of respondent No.6, have been unnecessarily called to the police station and that the police are interfering in the matrimonial disputes pending between petitioner No.1 and respondent No.6.

5. Sri P.Ajay Babu, the learned Assistant Government Pleader submits that respondent No.6, who is the wife of petitioner No.1, lodged a PGRS complaint on 12.01.2026. Based on the said complaint, the police called the petitioners to the police station for the purpose of conducting a preliminary enquiry. During the enquiry, it was revealed that matrimonial disputes are pending between petitioner No.1 and respondent No.6, and therefore, the parties were advised to work out their remedies before the appropriate forum.

6. Considering the above submissions of the learned Assistant Government Pleader, the Writ Petition is disposed of, directing respondent Nos.3 to 5 not to further call the petitioners to the police station in connection with the matrimonial disputes pending between petitioner No.1 and respondent No.6. However, it is made clear that if any settlement of disputes is required, the police may refer the parties to the Mandal Legal Services Committee or the District Legal Services Authority for appropriate resolution.

7. With the above observations and directions, the Writ Petition is disposed of. There shall be no order as to costs.

As a sequel, interlocutory applications, if any pending, shall stand closed.
