

HIGHCOURT OF ANDHRA PRADESH AT AMARAVATIMAIN CASE No: CrI.P.No.1380 of 2025*PROCEEDING SHEET

Sl. No.	DATE	ORDER	OFFICE NOTE
01.	20.02.2026	Dr.YLR,J I.A.No.01 of 2026 Heard. Dispensed with for the present. Dr.YLR,J CrI.P.No.1380 of 2026 Issue notice to respondent No.2. The learned counsel for the petitioner is permitted to take out personal notice on respondent No.2 and file proof to that effect. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Assistant Public Prosecutor. The de-facto complainant, who claims to be a sympathizer of a political party, lodged a complaint with the Station House Officer, II Town Police Station, Chittoor, stating that the petitioner, a differently-abled person, has committed offences punishable under Sections 153-A, 469, 506 and 505(2) of 'the IPC' and Section 66 of the Information Technology Act. The brief grievance of the de-facto complainant is that the petitioner posted certain objectionable photographs and information against constitutional office holders.	Contd...

The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the police have registered nearly twelve cases in nine districts against the petitioner in respect of same or similar set of circumstances/cause of action.

The grievance of the de-facto complainant against the petitioner is that he has promoted enmity between two political groups and intentionally insulted high constitutional officers with an intention to provoke breach of peace and tranquility.

The learned Assistant Public Prosecutor urged this Court to direct the petitioner not to further post or circulate any derogatory comments against anyone on any social media platform.

The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has already given an undertaking that he would not resort to similar offences. The above statements shall form part of the record.

Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, there shall be a stay of further proceedings in C.C.No.430 of 2025 on the file of the learned IV Additional Judicial Magistrate of First Class, Chittoor, including the appearance of the petitioner, until the next date of hearing.

Post the matter after four (04) weeks.

Dr.YLR,J
