

HIGH COURT OF ANDHRA PRADESH AT AMARAVATI

MAIN CASE No. W.P.No.7966 of 2026

PROCEEDING SHEET

Sl. No.	DATE	ORDER	OFFICE NOTE
	23.03.2026	VN, J The present writ petition is filed questioning the action of Respondent No.2 in not ratifying the admission of six (6) students of Petitioner-College for the academic year 2025-2026 as illegal and arbitrary. Petitioner-College is recognized by NCTE and offering B.Ed course with an intake capacity of 100 students. The Petitioner had participated in the counselling process and students were admitted into college and the list of admitted students was sent to Respondent No.2-APSCHE for ratification. In the ratification process, APSCHE had rejected the certificates of the three students on the ground that their EWS certificates were not valid. In the interregnum, three students who joined the Petitioner-College through counselling process had opted out of B.Ed course and thereafter the Petitioner-College admitted three students in the Management

		quota in replacement. The list of three newly admitted students and the EWS certificates of the three students whose ratification was rejected by APSCHE were re-submitted for ratification on 14.02.2026. As no further action is being taken by APSCHE, the present writ petition is filed as the first semester examinations are scheduled to be held from 24.03.2026. Smt. K.Radhika, learned counsel appearing for Respondent No.2 would submit that the cases of the three students whose EWS certificates and documents have been re-submitted would be considered by the APSCHE for ratification and the three students, who have been admitted by the Petitioner-College in place of replacement candidates, cannot be considered. Heard learned counsel for both the parties. The Petitioner-College had participated in the counselling process and had admitted students as per their intake capacity. It is the plea of the Petitioner-College that three students who had initially taken admission in the Petitioner-college had opted out for personal reasons and three students were admitted in replacement by the Petitioner in
