

HIGH COURT OF ANDHRA PRADESH AT AMARAVATI

MAIN CASE NO.: Cr1.A.No.144 of 2022

PROCEEDING SHEET

Sl. No.	Date	ORDER	OFFICE NOTE
9	10.05.2024	UDPR,J & JS,J I.A.No. 2 of 2024 The petitioner/appellant No.4/accused No.4 is convicted in S.C.No.91 of 2019 by the learned III Additional Sessions Judge, Rajampet, Kadapa District, and sentenced to undergo imprisonment for life and lodged in the Special Prison for Women, Kadapa. Pending the Criminal Appeal, she filed the instant petition seeking to enlarge her on bail by suspending the sentence of imprisonment ordered against her. Learned counsel for the petitioner/accused No.4 would submit that the petitioner has been languishing in Special Prison for Women, Kadapa, since 11.03.2022. He would further submit that the petitioner is aged about 62 years and now she is suffering with age related problems. The learned counsel, therefore, prays for bail.

		On the other hand, learned Public Prosecutor would submit that the petitioner was admitted in the Special Prison for Women, Kadapa, on 11.03.2022 and she was examined by the Jail Medical Officer and she is found good health. Therefore, he opposed the bail application. A perusal of the Medical Certificate, dated 10.05.2024 issued by the Medical Officer, Special Prison for Women, Kadapa, would reveal that the petitioner had a history of fall on outstretched hand on right side and she was treated at the Government General Hospital, Kadapa, on 27.03.2023 and treatment was given by reducing trapping application and at present, her health condition is stable. The record further discloses that earlier i.e., on 15.12.2022, the petitioner moved a bail application along with other accused being I.A.No.2 of 2022 and the said application was dismissed on 15.12.2022. In view of the above, we are not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.

I.A.No. 3 of 2024

The petitioner/appellant No.1/accused No.1 is convicted in S.C.No.91 of 2019 by the learned III Additional Sessions Judge, Rajampet, Kadapa District, and sentenced to undergo imprisonment for life and lodged in the Central Prison, Kadapa. Pending the Criminal Appeal, he filed the instant petition seeking to enlarge him on bail on medical grounds.

Learned counsel for the petitioner/accused No.1 would submit that the petitioner has been languishing in the Central Prison, Kadapa, since 11.03.2022. He would further submit that the petitioner is aged about 65 years and now he is suffering with age related problems. The petitioner requires better treatment in a Super Speciality Hospital. Therefore, the learned counsel prays to grant bail to the petitioner for a period of 90 days on medical grounds. Per contra, learned Public Prosecutor would submit that the petitioner was examined by the Medical Officer, Central Prison, Kadapa, and found that she was not suffering from any major sickness or illness and he is suffering with parasthesia upper shoulder and he was prescribed medication in the jail Hospital and also in the Government General Hospital, Kadapa. Therefore, he opposed the bail application. On a perusal of the Medical Certificate, dated 27.04.2024 issued by the Medical Officer, Central Prison, Kadapa, though the petitioner was given treatment in the jail Hospital and also in the Government General Hospital, Kadapa, for parasthesia upper shoulder, it is obvious that at present, the petitioner is unable to perform his duties on his own. Considering this aspect, it is apposite to allow the application. Accordingly, the application is allowed and the petitioner/appellant No.1/accused No.1 is ordered to be released on bail for a period of 30 days from 13.05.2024, on the condition of the petitioner executing a
