...RESPONDENT(S):

Counsel for the Petitioner:

1. PRUDVI RAJU MUDUNURI

Counsel for the Respondent(S):

1. GP FOR HOME

The Court made the following:

ORDER:

The Writ Petition has been filed for the following relief:

“... to Issue an appropriate writ/Order Direction more particularly one in the nature of Writ of Mandamus declaring the action of Respondent No.4 in not registering the FIR on my Written Complaint dt. 22.03.2026 in a Cognizable Offence as illegal, arbitrary and violative of fundamental Rights guaranteed under Art. 21 of the Constitution of India, A) And consequently, direct the Respondent No.4 to register the FIR on my Written Complaint dt. 22.03.2026 and investigate the crime as per the procedure established by law, in the interest of Justice and pass such other Order or Orders, which may deem fit and proper in the circumstances of this Writ Petition and to pass...”

2. Heard the learned counsel for Petitioner and learned Assistant Government Pleader.

3. Sri Prudvi Raju Mudunuri, learned Counsel for the Petitioner submits that the Petitioner has submitted a complaint on 22.03.2026 for registration of a crime, but the Respondent No.4 has not registered the crime and initiated the investigation.

4. Sri P.Ajay Babu, learned Assistant Government Pleader, on written instructions submits that the police conducted preliminary enquiry on the complaint lodged by the Petitioner and registered under Section 194(2) of ‘the BNSS’ and they are following the procedure contemplated under Section 194(2) of ‘the BNSS’.

5. Be that as it may, when the complaint of the Petitioner discloses commission of a cognizable offence, has not been registered as an FIR and conducting investigation by the police, the Petitioner has got an alternative efficacious remedy by filing a private complaint before the learned Jurisdictional Magistrate under Section 190 read with Section 200 of ‘the Cr.P.C.,’ / Section 210 read with 223 of ‘the BNSS’. It appears that the Petitioner has not approached the learned Jurisdictional Magistrate for the relief.

6. Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, the Writ Petition is disposed of, directing the Petitioner to file appropriate complaint before the learned Jurisdictional Magistrate under Section 190 read with Section 200 of ‘the Cr.P.C.,’ / Section 210 read with 223 of ‘the BNSS’.

7. On filing of such private complaint by the Petitioner before the learned Jurisdictional Magistrate, the learned Jurisdictional Magistrate is directed to bestow his attention to the same and deal with the complaint in accordance with law.

8. In the result, the Writ Petition is disposed of. There shall be no order as to costs.

As a sequel, Miscellaneous petitions, if any pending, shall stand closed.
