Sl. No.	DATE	ORDER	REMARKS
1.	01.05.2024	GN, J & HN,J Heard the learned Government Pleader and Sri. V. Eswaraiah Choudary, learned counsel, representing Sri. R.Satyanarayana Murthi, learned counsel, appearing on behalf of the private respondent. It is a case of the appellants that a direction came to be issued directing the appellants to consider the case of the respondent/petitioner in the Writ Petition. At an earlier occasion, the appellants considered the application of the father of the petitioner and rejected the same on the ground that the same being belated i.e., after 14 years, and that on the same ground, the application of the respondent/petitioner also came to be rejected. In compliance with the direction issued by the learned Single Judge, that despite disposal, Contempt Case has been filed and the respondent/petitioner is pressing for hearing on the Contempt Case.

		It is submitted that delay occurred in view of the fact that the appellants were under the impression that they had complied with the order but now with the changed circumstance, that the learned Single Judge insisting upon hearing Contempt Case, they are constrained to file the instant Writ Appeal. It is further submitted that the respondent/petitioner has not challenged the order passed by the appellants but on the other hand, he is pressing for adjudication of the Contempt proceedings.
