The Court made the following:ORDER: (Per Hon'ble Sri Justice Cheekati Manavendranath Roy)

When the writ petition for Habeas Corpus is taken up for hearing, learned counsel for the petitioner, on instructions, submits that as the corpus was arrested in connection with crime that was registered against him that the petitioner and corpus are seeking their legal remedy of moving for bail and no further orders are required to be passed in this writ petition.

2. Learned Assistant Government Pleader also submits that the corpus was arrested in connection with the crime that was registered against him and he was remanded to judicial custody.

3. In that view of the matter, this Writ Petition for Habeas Corpus is not maintainable.

4. Accordingly, the Writ Petition is dismissed. However, the petitioner and the corpus are at liberty to move for bail before the concerned Court. There shall be no order as to costs.

As a sequel, Interlocutory Applications pending, if any, shall stand closed.
