The Court made the following:ORDER:

The instant Writ Petition is filed by the Petitioner under Article 226 of the Constitution of India for the following relief:

" ... to issue an appropriate writ order or direction more particularly one in the nature of writ of mandamus declaring that the inaction of respondents nos.3 and 4 in not registering the Crime against respondent no.5 pursuant to the complaint dated and further in threatening the petitioner to withdraw the complaint dated 05-05-2025 under the guise of foisting the false criminal cases against the petitioner as illegal, arbitrary, unconstitutional and in violation of principles of natural justice. Articles 14, 21, 300-A and consequently direct the respondents nos.3 and 4 to register a crime pursuant to the report given by the petitioner dated 05-05-2025 as per the provisions of Chapter XIII of Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhitha 2023 in the interest of justice and equity and to pass"

2. Heard learned counsel for the Petitioner and learned Assistant Government Pleader for Home appearing for respondent/State. Perused the material on record.

3. Learned Assistant Government Pleader on written instructions dated 24.07.2025 issued by the Inspector of Police, Nagarampalem Police Station, Guntur District, would submit that the Petitioner/Complainant filed a Grievance Petition in PGRS. The said complaint was endorsed to respondent No.4 to conduct enquiry and take necessary action. Accordingly, respondent No.4 conducted enquiry and during enquiry, respondent No.4 tried to summon the complainant for so many times but she was not responded and he also sent his staff to house of the complainant but it was locked. In the above circumstances, if the complainant will come to PS and cooperate for enquiry then the police will take necessary action as per law. Learned Assistant Government Pleader would submit that the Court may pass appropriate orders.

4. Learned counsel for the Petitioner would submit that the Court may pass appropriate orders.

5. In that view, this Writ Petition is disposed of. Petitioner is directed to appear before the concerned Police Station and furnish the information as required to take further course of action by the Police on her complaint. No order as to costs.

As a sequel thereto, miscellaneous petitions pending, if any, shall stand closed.
