Appeal under Section 19 of the Family Courts Act is filed to present this Memorandum of Family Court Appeal against the order dated 10-04-2023 passed in F.C.O.P No. 288 of 2021, on the file of the Family Court-Cum- VII Additional District Judge, Ananthapuramu District.

The Appeal coming on for hearing, upon perusing the Petition and the memorandum of grounds filed in support thereof and the order of the High Court dated: 31.08.2023 & 04.05.2026 made herein and upon hearing the arguments of Sri T V JAGGI REDDY, Advocate for the Petitioner and of Sri ROSEDAR S.R.A., Advocate for the Respondent;

The Court made the following COMMON ORDER:

Pursuant to the order of this Court dated 04.05.2026, both parties are appeared before this Court.

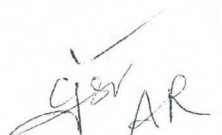

As per the terms of the Joint Memo filed on 27.11.2025, the respondent agreed to withdraw C.C. No.61 of 2022, D.V.C. No.80 of 2023, as well as the Criminal Revision case pending before this Court.

The learned counsel for the appellant brought to the notice of this Court that, till date, the respondent has not filed any application seeking withdrawal of C.C. No.61 of 2022 and D.V.C. No.80 of 2023, despite the disputes having already been settled under the compromise arrived at between the parties. It is evident that, for reasons best known to them, both parties have not taken effective steps either to settle or to withdraw C.C. No.61 of 2022, D.V.C. No.80 of 2023, and the Criminal Revision case pending before this Court.

The appellant has produced a Xerox copy of Demand Draft No. "846708" 00000 2000: 000549"16' dated 19.06.2026 for a sum of Rs.26,00,000/- drawn on State Bank of India, Treasury Branch, Ananthapuram. Since the said demand draft is valid only for a period of three (03) months, the appellant is directed to deposit the original demand draft before the Registrar (Judicial) through counsel on or before 06.07.2026.

The learned counsel for the respondent submitted that C.C. No.61 of 2022 is scheduled to be taken up on 06.07.2026 and D.V.C. No.80 of 2023 on 22.07.2026. In view of the same, both parties are directed to take appropriate steps, including filing necessary applications, to give effect to the compromise and bring the said proceedings to their culmination.

The learned counsel for the respondent sought time to place on record the orders that may be passed in the aforesaid proceedings. The learned counsel for the appellant shall extend due cooperation to ensure the disposal of C.C. No.61 of 2022 and D.V.C. No.80 of 2023 without any further delay.

 AR

Having regard to the compromise arrived at between the parties and the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, this Court deems it appropriate to grant time for completion of the formalities relating to withdrawal/closure of the pending proceedings.

List the matter on 17.08.2026 for the appearance of both parties. In the event the proceedings in C.C. No.61 of 2022, D.V.C. No.80 of 2023 and the Criminal Revision case are closed by that date, the matter shall be taken up for recording the compromise and for handing over the demand draft deposited before the Registrar (Judicial) to the respondent.
