The Court made the following:

THE HONOURABLE SRI JUSTICE A. HARI HARANADHA SARMAI.A.No.2 of 2026*in*CRIMINAL REVISION CASE NO: 551 OF 2026*ORDER:-

The Orders of the extension of remand period beyond 180 days by the 1st Additional District and Sessions Judge cum Special Judge for trial of offences under N.D.P.S Act, Visakhapatnam passed in Crl.M.P.No.286 of 2026 under Orders dated 17.04.2026 are under challenge in main case and now the petitioner prays for grant of bail in the petition.

2. The petitioner claimed that the extension of time without proper knowledge of the accused done by the learned trial judge is improper.

3. Learned Assistant Public Prosecutor would submit that even virtual presence is sufficient and physical presence is not necessary. He would also submit that the counsel for the petitioner has participated in the proceedings. It is brought to the notice of this court that even the time extended 225 days is completed and no explanation submitted under any count.

4. Upon considering the contention that maximum statutory period is completed, the prayer of the petitioner found convincing, the petition is allowed, however, on the following conditions:

i) Petitioner / Accused shall be enlarged on bail on executing a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- with two sureties for the like sum each to the satisfaction of the learned I Additional District and Sessions Judge for Trial of offences under NDPS Act, Visakhapatnam.

ii) The Petitioner/ Accused and sureties shall furnish their permanent residential address details and identity particulars to the concerned police and keep the police informed about the change in address, if any, time to time.

iii) The Petitioner/accused shall appear before the concerned Station House Officer on 1st Monday of every month for a period of three (03) months or till filing of the charge sheet, whichever is earlier.
