Petition under Section 528 of BNSS is filed praying that in the circumstances stated in the affidavit filed in support of the petition, the High Court may be pleased may be pleased to direct the Registry of this Hon'ble Court to direct the Registry of this Hon'ble Court to return the original Promissory Note dated 17-02-2016, which was marked as Ex-P.1 in CC No.

825 of 2018 on the file of the Court of the II Additional Judicial Magistrate of First Class, Eluru on substitution of the same with its certified copy, Pending disposal of CRLA No. 260 of 2022, on the file of the High Court.

The court while directing issue of notice to the Respondents herein to show cause as to why this application should not be complied with, made the following order.(The receipt of this order will be deemed to be the receipt of notice in the case).

ORDER

"This Interlocutory Application is filed to return the original promissory note dated 17.02.2016, which was marked as Ex-P1 in C.C.No.825 of 2018 on the file of the learned II Additional Judicial Magistrate of First Class, Eluru.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner.

Despite conditional order passed by this Court on 17.10.2025 directing the respondent No.1 to file counter affidavit, if any, no counter has been filed and none appeared for the respondent No.1.

Considering the submissions of learned counsel for the petitioner that civil suits are pending before the Courts concerned for want of promissory notes, which were marked in this Court and since the appeal relates to the year 2022, this Court is of the view that it may take considerable time to dispose of the matter.

In the said facts of the case, Registry is directed to return the Ex.P1 Promissory note to the petitioner subject to the production of certified copies of the said documents and undertaking that the documents would be filed as and when they are required.

Accordingly, this Interlocutory Application is allowed."
