The Court made the following order:

Sri R. Tirupathi Naik, Manager, Housing Corporation would submit that the District Water Management Agency (DWMA) supervises the works regarding leveling of the lands, clearing of bushes and formation of roads. He would also submit that after completion of the works, plots will be handed over to the Housing Corporation and thereafter, the Housing Corporation will undertake construction of houses. He would further submit that Panchayat Raj wing will address a letter to the Housing Corporation, to release the funds in respect of the aforementioned works. After receiving the said letter, the Housing Corporation requests the Government to release the budget and after release of the budget, the Corporation will remit the amount in the account of Panchayat Raj, enabling the latter to disburse the amount to the contractors.

Learned Assistant Government Pleader for Panchayat Raj, seeks time to get instructions in that regard.
