Heard learned counsel for the petitioner. Also heard Mr. G Raju, learned counsel representing the respondents.

An application vide I.A No.1 of 2026 is filed seeking to dispense with physical appearance of the respondent No.1. Unless the Court grants exemption or leave, the appearance of the contemnor cannot be dispensed with, though the order is complied with. Be that as it may.

3. As it is submitted by Mr. G Raju, learned counsel representing the respondents, that the orders in the writ petition are complied with and the same is not denied by the learned counsel for the petitioner, this Court is not inclined to examine the matter further.

4. Accordingly, this Contempt Case is closed. No costs. Miscellaneous petitions pending, if any, including I.A No.1 of 2026, shall stand closed.
