

HIGH COURT OF ANDHRA PRADESH AT AMARAVATHI

MAIN CASE: W.P.No.17982 of 2024

PROCEEDING SHEET

Sl. No	DATE	ORDER	Office Note
01.	14.08.2024	TRR, J The learned counsel for the petitioners argued elaborately and contended that the issue of exempting private aided management schools from the purview of A.P. School Education (C.P) Act, 1998 is pending before the Government, the respondents cannot conduct elections for the private aided management schools. The learned counsel further contended that the Government of Andhra Pradesh on earlier occasion has given an undertaking in W.P.No.21368 of 1998 and batch dated 04.06.2001. As per the undertaken given by the Government in the supra referred writ petition, unless the decision taken by the Government no election can be conducted to the private aided management schools. The learned counsel for the respondents submits that no papers were served on them. Already on earlier occasion, this Court in various other writ petitions has taken decision directing the respondents to conduct the elections. However, the elected body shall not function until the final decision passed by this Court.

		Therefore, this Court is inclined to grant interim direction to the respondents to conduct the elections but the elected body shall not function until the final decision taken by this Court and the elected body is also not entitled to claim any equity, in this regard.
