Learned counsel for the appellants submits that the appellants are apprehending that they may be dispossessed pursuant to the decree, without taking recourse with the legal provisions. 3. For such apprehension, he submits that while passing the decree the learned Trial Court has provided that “directing the plaintiff to take over the physical possession of the plaint schedule property”. So in his submission, the plaintiff being the State and the State authorities they may take forcible possession. 3. Learned counsel for the respondents submits that he shall obtain instructions on that aspect, as also if any execution petitions are filed or not. 4.
