ORDER

“Sri.S.R.A.Rosedar, learned counsel for petitioners would represent that the Criminal Petitions are filed under section 482 of Cr.P.C., challenging the order passed by the Court below taking cognizance against the accused/petitioners, it is contended that the competent authority, after investigation, had closed the case against the accused/petitioners.

The Court feels that there is force in the contention of the petitioners and that, despite the law of the land, an opportunity was provided to the present aggrieved party.

It appears no such opportunity was given to the accused.

In view of the very absence of issuing of notice which is contrary to the elements of the criminal jurisdiction.

In view of the above, for enabling to place rulings in his favour, post the matter on 06.07.2026.

Stay which was granted earlier is further extended for a period of four (4) weeks.
