COMMON ORDER:

1. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is in the business of advertisement-related services. Work orders were issued during 2018-2019 for displaying the advertisements on behalf of the 3rd respondent. The petitioner had executed the work and advertised the welfare schemes as desired by the respondents. It is submitted that the petitioner thereafter raised the requisite invoices after completing the work. It is also submitted that the bills were approved by the competent authority of the 3rd respondent. The learned counsel for the petitioner further submits that the petitioner was compelled to file the present writ petitions as the respondents have failed to release the due amounts, though the petitioner had executed the work as desired by the respondent authorities.

2. Counter affidavits are filed by respondent Nos. 2 and 3. As seen from the counters, there is no dispute with regard to the execution of work. It is also not in dispute that the bills due payable to the petitioner were uploaded on the CFMS portal in the year 2019. It is also stated in the counters that the bills could not be released on account of a lack of adequate funds and that the bills were moved to the next financial year by assigning bill ID numbers. It is also stated in the counter that the bills approved by the earlier Managing Director of the 3rd respondent are not within the knowledge of the authorized deputant who filed the counter.

3. Considering the submissions and also the counters filed, there is no dispute with regard to the execution of work by the petitioner. It is also evident that the bills due payable to the petitioner were uploaded on the CFMS portal, which categorically clears the ambiguity with regard to the fact that there is no disputes or differences regarding the payment of the dues.

4. Considering the said submissions and taking on record the averments made in the counter, these writ petitions are disposed off, directing respondents to verify and release the payments within a period of eight (08) weeks from the date of receipt of this order. There shall be no order as to costs.

Pending miscellaneous petitions, if any, shall stand closed.
