02.	14.08.2025	BVLNC, J I.A.No.01 of 2025 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner/appellant/convict and learned Assistant Public Prosecutor representing the State. Learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner/appellant preferred the appeal challenging the judgment dated 28.07.2025 in S.C.No.307 of 2023 on the file of the learned VII Additional District and Sessions Judge, Madanapalle. The learned trial Court found the accused guilty for the offence punishable under Sections 307 and 326 I.P.C. and sentenced to suffer rigorous imprisonment for a period of ten (10) years and to pay a fine of Rs.15,000/- (Rupees fifteen thousand only) for the offence U/s.307 IPC, in default to undergo simple imprisonment for six (06) months. The petitioner/appellant was also sentenced to suffer rigorous imprisonment for a period of ten (10) years and to pay fine of Rs.15,000/-(Rupees fifteen thousand only) for the offence U/s.326 IPC, in default to undergo simple imprisonment for six (06) months respectively. 		:: 2 :: He would further submit that the petitioner/appellant/convict paid fine amount and receipt also filed in the grounds of appeal. Learned counsel for the petitioner/convict would submit that the learned trial Court erroneously convicted the accused without assigning the facts and certain questions of law involved in the case. There is fair chance to succeed in the appeal. Some time may take to hearing the appeal, meanwhile the sentence imposed by the learned trial Court may be suspended. The petitioner/appellant was released on bail during the trial and before, there are no allegations against the petitioner that he committed breach of bail bond at the time during trial. Considering the above facts and circumstances, the order of sentence may be suspended, pending disposal of the appeal. Learned Additional Public Prosecutor opposed the present application. Upon hearing both sides and on perusal of the record, and consideration of the above facts and circumstances, this Court is of the considered opinion that the order of sentence be suspended, till disposal of the appeal, subject to the following conditions. i) The petitioner/accused shall be enlarged on bail, on executing a personal bond for Rs.20,000/- (Rupees Twenty Thousand only) with two (02) sureties for a like sum each, to	Contd.,
