The Court made the following ORDER:

The present Writ Petition has been filed questioning the action of the respondents in trying to evict the petitioner from Room/Shop No.2 of SC Shopping Complex, Parigi village and mandal, Anantapur district, without assigning any valid reasons and without following due process of law.

2. Case of the petitioner is that he belongs to SC Category and the SC Corporation constructed shopping complex at Parigi for allotment of shops/rooms to the unemployed SC people for running small businesses. Based on the representation made by him on 19.06.2006 and on considering the eligibility criteria, 2nd respondent, vide proceedings dated 27.07.2007, allotted Shop/Room No.2 at SC Shopping Complex, Parigi, to him. Since then, he is in continuous possession and enjoyment of the said Shop by doing small business therein and by paying the rents regularly. While so, on 20.07.2015, the respondents called the petitioner to their office and orally instructed to vacate the subject shop. Grievance of the petitioner is that the respondents are trying to evict him from the subject Shop, without following due process of law, with an intention to allot the said shop in favour of the followers of local leaders. Hence, he filed the present Writ Petition.

3. This Court, on 27.07.2015, while admitting the Writ Petition, directed the respondents not to evict the petitioner herein from Room No.2 of SC Shopping Complex, Parigi village and mandal, Anantapur district, pending disposal of the Writ Petition.

4. Today, when the matter came up for hearing, learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that, in view of the said interim orders in force, the respondents may be directed to follow due process of law, if they intend to evict the petitioner from the subject Shop.

5. In view of the aforesaid facts and circumstances, the Writ Petition is disposed of with a direction to the respondents to strictly follow due process of law before taking any steps to evict the petitioner from the subject Shop. There shall be no order as to costs.

As a sequel thereto, the miscellaneous applications, if any, pending in this Writ Petition shall stand closed.
