|  |  | He would further submit that the learned trial Court erroneously convicted the petitioner/A-1 without appreciating the facts in proper perspective. Hence, the petitioner preferred the appeal, challenging the judgment on various grounds. He would further submit that the sentence imposed by the learned trial Court is fixed sentence for a period of ten (10) years, and there are fair chances to succeed in the appeal, and there is no possibility of taking the appeal in the near future. Considering the above facts and circumstances, the order of sentence imposed by the trial Court may be suspended, pending disposal of the appeal. Learned Additional Public Prosecutor opposed the application. However, no written objections were filed opposing the application. He would submit that notice was taken to the victim U/s.15(A)(3) of SC/ST (PoA) Act, 1989. No one appeared for the victim. No objections filed for the victim for opposing the application. Considering the above facts and circumstances, and as the sentence imposed by the trial Court is fixed sentence of ten (10) years, and out of which, the petitioner had already completed three years of sentence, and as there is no likelihood taking the | Contd..3 |
