Petition under Section 151 CPC is filed praying that in the circumstances stated in the affidavit filed in support of the writ petition, the High Court may be pleased to direct the 3rd respondent to issue a direction similar to the direction issued by the 3rd respondent in ROC No.123/E1/2021, Dt.30.04.2025 for regularization of services of the petitioners in the light of the judgment of this Hon'ble Court in W.P.Nos.32917 of 2022 and 32606 of 2022, pending disposal of WP.No.21679 of 2025, on the file of the High Court.

The petition coming on for hearing, upon perusing the Petition and the affidavit filed in support thereof and upon hearing the arguments of Sri Anasuri Eswar Sai, Advocate for the Petitioners and GP for Services-I for the Respondent No.1 and Sri G.Vivekanand, Advocate for the Respondent Nos.2 to 4, the Court made the following;

ORDER:

2. Learned counsel for the petitioners placed reliance on the judgment of the Co-ordinate Bench dated 31.07.2024 in W.P.No.32917 of 2022 & 36206 of 2022, against which SLP was also dismissed by the Hon'ble Apex Court, to contend that the petitioners stand on the same footing and entitled to the same benefit. A Coordinate Bench has directed regularisation of the contract employees of that writ petitions.

3. To the aforesaid contention, learned Standing Counsels for High Court submitted that the relevant provision of Section 7 of the Andhra Pradesh (Regulation of Appointments to Public Services and Rationalisation of Staff Pattern and Pay Structure) Act, 1994 (for short "Act No.2 of 1994") was not taken note of and the judgment of the Telangana High Court on which the reliance was placed by the Co-ordinate Bench of this Court was inapplicable. They submit that the Act No.2 of 1994 was amended in the State of Telangana. There, Section 10A, provided for the Regularisation of Services of persons appointed on contract basis but any such provision does not exist in the Act No.2 of 1994 for the State of Andhra Pradesh. So, in their submission the petitioners are not entitled to claim benefit of the judgment of the Co-ordinate Bench.

4. Learned Standing Counsels for the High Court further submit that many of the petitioners were appointed on contract basis pursuant to the notification whereas many were appointed on contract basis on their application without there being any notification.

5. Learned Standing Counsels shall submit the synopsis with a list containing the names of those petitioners, who were appointed on the contract basis pursuant to the notification and those who were appointed otherwise.

6. Learned counsels for the petitioners shall also submit synopsis with a list containing the names of the petitioners, who have applied pursuant to the recruitment notification; the names of the petitioners who did not apply, and also the names of those petitioners, who applied and appeared in the written examination.

7. Post on 04.11.2025.

8. Learned Standing Counsels for High Court submits that the written examination is over but it will take some time to declare the result.
