

HIGH COURT OF ANDHRA PRADESH AT AMARAVATI

MAIN CASE No.: W.P.No.25629 of 2025

PROCEEDING SHEET

Sl. No	DATE	ORDER
8.	09.02.2026	CMR,J & GTK,J I.A.No.3 of 2025 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned Standing Counsel for the bank, appearing for the respondent. The writ petitioner has prayed to implead the auction purchaser as party-respondent in the writ petition on the ground that the auction purchaser did not deposit the balance sale consideration within the stipulated period of 90 days. Learned Standing Counsel for the bank, on instructions, submits that the auction purchaser has in fact deposited the entire balance sale consideration and sale certificate was also issued to him. In that view of the matter, the present petition seeking to implead the auction purchaser as party-respondent on the ground urged in the affidavit filed in support of the petition, has no merit. Further, when the petitioner seeks to challenge the sale of the secured asset on other grounds, which are urged in the writ petition, we do not see any valid ground to implead the auction purchaser in the present writ petition. Therefore, the petition is dismissed. W.P.No.25629 of 2025 Perused the report of the Registrar (Judicial) submitted as called for. Considering the report filed by the Registrar (Judicial), no action is required to be ordered against any employee. However, Registrar (Judicial) shall take steps to see that no such lapses take place in scrutinizing the interlocutory applications and placing the same before the Court in compliance with the direction of the Court in future. I.A.No.3 of 2025 filed to implead the auction purchaser as party-respondent is dismissed. Since pleadings are completed in the writ petition, list the matter finally for hearing on 16.02.2026.
