The Court made the following:ORDER:

This Writ Petition is filed under Article 226 of Constitution of India with the following prayer for:

“.... to issue any writ, order direction more particularly one in the nature of writ of mandamus declaring the action of the respondent and his police personnel in calling the petitioners to the police station and threatening to settle the civil dispute of the 5th respondent, without following the due process of law as illegal, violative of Articles 14 and 21 of the Constitution of India and contrary to the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure and consequently direct the 4th respondent not to harass the petitioners by calling him to the police station and making them to sit in the police station, without following due process of law.”

2. Heard Sri Kochiri Raja Shekar, learned counsel for the petitioners and Sri Md.Farooq, learned Assistant Government Pleader for Home.

3. Learned Assistant Government Pleader for Home would submit that basing on the complaint of unofficial respondent, the petitioners were called to the police station for preliminary enquiry and no crime has been registered against them.

4. In that view, the Writ Petition is disposed of. However, the police are directed not to call the petitioners to the police station except under due process of law. The police are further directed not to interfere in the civil disputes between the parties. There shall be no order as to costs.

As a sequel thereto, miscellaneous petitions, if any, pending shall stand closed.
