On earlier occasions as well as today, learned counsels on both sides made their respective submissions. A few facts are to be noticed. O.S.No.295 of 2009 is a suit filed for declaration of title and for consequential relief of injunction. The heart of the dispute is based on a Will propounded by the plaintiff therein and that was dis-believed and the suit was dismissed. Aggrieved sole plaintiff preferred the present appeal in A.S.No.321 of 2013. Pending appeal, he died. It is in that regard, the present application was filed by Sri Ch.Sriharsha claiming to be the legal representative being a legettee under the Will executed by the deceased sole appellant. In the counters filed, the respondents referred the names and addresses of five individuals who are stated to be the natural legal heirs and according to the learned counsel they are supposed to be the normal legal representatives. SL. NO.	DATE	ORDER	OFFICE NOTE
	20.03.2024	While considering the application for impleadment based on Will, necessary enquiry is to be conducted before the Trial Court so as to take a decision about the legal representatives. Since natural legal heirs are also shown in the counter and since Will essentially relates to a property that allegedly belonged to the original plaintiff, this Court thought it fit to issue notices to the five (05) individuals whose names are referred at paragraph No.7 of the counter. Therefore, Registry is directed to send notices to the following : 1) Koripella Suryakantham 2) Koripella Ramachandra Rao 3) Garigipati Sri Devi 4) Chodi Monarama 5) Muthayala Bharathi For appearance, list on 24.04.2024. _____ Dr.VRKS, J GRL
