

HIGH COURT OF ANDHRA PRADESH AT AMARAVATHI

MAIN CASE No.W.A.No.67 of 2025

PROCEEDING SHEET

Sl.No.	DATE	ORDER	Office Note
02.	24.02.2025	RRR,J & MRK,J I.A.No.1 of 2025 This is an interlocutory application filed to condone the delay of 432 days in representing the bundle. The ground set out for condonation of delay is that, the learned counsel, who had appeared for the applicant/appellant, had refused to appear for him after the return of the bundle and the said bundle could be represented only after an advocate was engaged in December, 2020. Notice sent to the contesting respondent No.9 has been returned with an endorsement 'Door Locked'. In such circumstances, notice shall be deemed to have been served. This Court, for the reasons set out by the applicant/appellant, in the affidavit, filed in support of this application, condones the delay of 432 days in representing the bundle, subject to the condition of the payment of costs of Rs.500/- to the Andhra Pradesh State Legal Services Authority within a period of two (02) weeks. I.A.No.2 of 2025 This is an interlocutory application filed to condone the delay of 327 days in filing the Writ Appeal. The contention of the applicant/appellant is that, he was unaware of the filing of the Writ Petition and that, the two advocates, who had filed vakalat on his behalf did not have any authorization and steps were being taken to file a complaint against the said advocates before the Bar Council of Telangana. In view of the fact that, the applicant/appellant has chosen to file a complaint before the Bar Council of Telangana, it appears that the contention raised by him, that he was unaware of the filing of the Writ Petition would have to be accepted. Notice sent to the contesting respondent No.9 has been returned with an endorsement 'Door Locked'. In such circumstances, the explanation offered by the applicant/appellant is accepted
