Petition under Section 151 CPC is filed praying that in the circumstances stated in the affidavit filed in support of the writ petition, the High Court may be pleased to direct the 2nd and 3rd Respondents not to interfere with the subject land of the petitioner to an extent of 1016.35 Sq.Yards situated in Sy.No.108/1A1 of Pelluru(V), Ongole(M), Prakasam District including construction of compound wall forthwith, pending disposal of WP No.29519 of 2023, on the file of the High Court.

The court while directing issue of notice to the Respondents herein to show cause as to why this application should not be complied with, made the following order.(The receipt of this order will be deemed to be the receipt of notice in the case).

ORDER:

"This application has been filed seeking a direction to the respondents 2 & 3 not to interfere with the subject land of the petitioner in an extent of 1016.35 sq. yards situated in Sy.No.108/1A1 of Pelluru village, Ongole Mandal, Prakasam District.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted a suit in O.S.No.4 of 2021 on the file of the Court of Additional Senior Civil Judge, Ongole, is pending between respondent 4 & 5/ plaintiffs and the writ petitioner/defendant No.6 and there is no interim order of injunction granted in that suit against the writ petitioner, yet, the police are visiting the property and causing interference in the civil dispute. Learned counsel for the petitioner further submitted that meanwhile a direction may be given to the respondents/police not to interfere with the civil dispute as they are preventing the petitioner from constructing a wall, though there is no order of interim injunction.

In view of the above submissions, there shall be an interim direction to the respondents 2 & 3/police not to interfere in the civil dispute till 23.11.2023 unless there is either an order of a court or events constituting commission of an offence happen."
