

HIGH COURT OF ANDHRA PRADESH :: AMARAVATIMain Case No: Crl.A.No.759 of 2025*PROCEEDING SHEET

Sl. No.	Date	ORDER	OFFICE NOTE
03.	26.11.2025	BVLNC,J I.A.No.1 of 2025 Heard Sri M.R.K.Chakravarthy, learned counsel for the petitioner/appellant/convict and learned counsel representing Sri S.Syam Sunder Rao, learned Standing Counsel-cum-Special Public Prosecutor for ACB. Petitioner is accused in C.C.No.22 of 2018 (old C.C.No.40 of 2011) on the file of the learned Special Judge for Trial of Cases under Protection of Corruption Act, Rajamahendravaram. Learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that petitioner/convict was found guilty for the offences under Section 7 and 13(1)(d) r/w 13(2) of the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988 and he was sentenced to undergo rigorous imprisonment for a period of one (1) year each and to pay a fine of Rs.1,000/- each (Rupees one Thousand only), in default to undergo simple imprisonment for a period of two (02) months each. He would further submit that paid the fine amount, and appellant released on bail by the trial Court to file the appeal and	Contd..

		therefore, he file the appeal challenging the judgment on various grounds as trial Court erroneously convict the appellant. Learned counsel for the petitioner would further submit that the present application is filed for suspension of conviction and sentence imposed by the trial Court. In that view of the matter, the order of conviction and sentence imposed by the trial Court may be suspended. Learned Standing Counsel-cum-Special Public Prosecutor for ACB reported no objection for suspension of sentence of imprisonment but opposed the suspension of conviction. The learned counsel for the petitioner/appellant would submit that, for the time being, the sentence of imprisonment may be suspended. The appellant will file a separate application for suspension of conviction. Considering the above facts and circumstances, “the order of sentence of imprisonment alone imposed by the learned Special Judge for Trial of Cases under Protection of Corruption Act, Rajamahendravaram, passed in C.C.No.22 of 2018 alone is suspended, subject to the same terms and conditions imposed by	Contd..
