The Court made the following ORDER:

This Writ Petition, under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, is filed seeking the following relief:

“.....Pleased to issue an appropriate Writ, Order or Direction, more particularly one in the nature of Writ of Mandamus, declaring the inaction of the respondent authorities in taking steps to delete my land admeasuring Ac. 3.57 cents in Sy.Nos. 608-2A, 608-2B, 608-2C and 608-2D situated at Atmakur village and Mandal, SPSR Nellore District, from the list of the prohibited properties U/Sec. 22-A of the Registration Act, 1908, inspite of the written representation dt. 11-8-2025 followed by personal visits, as being illegal, arbitrary, unjust and unconstitutional and consequently direct the respondent authorities to delete the above mentioned lands from the list of the prohibited properties, by considering the letter of the then District Collector dt. 27-1-2011 bearing D.Dis (EI)/3114/2010”

2. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned Assistant Government Pleader for Revenue appearing for respondents.
3. The contention of the learned counsel for the petitioner is that despite the petitioners made representation on 11.08.2025 for deletion of the subject property from the prohibitory list furnished under Section 22-A(1) of the Registration Act, 1908, no action has been taken so far.
4. Learned Assistant Government Pleader has submitted that the application for deletion of the subject property from the prohibitory list has to be made through online.
5. Considering the submissions made by both the learned counsel, the Writ Petition is disposed of at the admission stage, by granting liberty to the petitioner to submit an online application seeking for deletion of the subject property from the prohibitory list within a period of three (03) weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. Upon receipt of such application, the 2nd respondent – District Collector shall consider the same after getting report from the concerned authority and pass appropriate orders in accordance with law within a period of two (2) months thereafter. There shall be no order as to costs.

As a sequel, miscellaneous petitions, pending if any, shall stand closed.
