Upon the said representations, the 3rd respondent passed orders stating that the entire process has been put on hold pending the implementation of the code of conduct for general elections and appropriate orders would be issued at the appropriate stage. It is stated that since then, no orders have been passed by the respondent. He places reliance on the order passed by the coordinate Bench(s) of this Court on the very same issue, a copy of the judgments have been annexed to the writ petition. The fact has not been disputed by the learned Assistant Government Pleader appearing for respondents.
