ORDER:

1. The present writ petition is filed for following relief:

“... to issue a Writ or order or direction more particularly one in the nature of writ of Mandamus declaring the inaction on the part of M.R.O. of Nellore District as unconstitutional and a) to direct a detailed and comprehensive investigation by a competent authority into the forged, fabricated and illegally procured documents, including but not limited to the false Family Certificate submitted by Respondent No.6, along with the digitally manipulated photographs and misleading representations placed on record;b) To Issue appropriate directions for conducting a DNA Paternity Test of the minor girl Grishma, under judicial oversight, for conclusive determination of biological parentage and to ascertain the veracity of the false claims advanced by Respondent No.6; c) To cancel revoke and remove names of the Respondent No.2and Her daughter Grishma from the fraudulent Family member Certificate and any related documents illegally obtained by Respondent No.6, purporting to show herself and her daughter as legal heirs of the deceased; d) To Direct that the compensation amount already received and any further amount pending disbursement be lawfully, equitably, and proportionately distributed solely among the legitimate Class-I legal heirs, namely Yenda Lohit Kumar and Yenda Srivastav i.e. Petitioners 1&2 in this Writ Petition the biological sons of Late Sri. Y.Venkata Ramana, and further direct recovery of any amount unlawfully withdrawn or misappropriated by Respondent No.6 and pass such other order...”

2. A perusal of the prayer and also after hearing the submissions of the learned counsel for the petitioners, though there is some force in the argument made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, this Court is not inclined to entertain the writ petition as it pertains to the dispute between the petitioners and the unofficial respondents.
3. Considering the submission made by the learned counsel petitioners, the petitioners are permitted to withdraw the writ petition and agitate their claim before the competent authority by way of appeal or revision as against the family member certificate dt.11.04.2017 by producing relevant records and also given liberty to file objections before the appropriate Court where the M.V.O.P. No.263 of 2017 is pending.
4. Accordingly, the writ petition is closed. No costs.
5. Miscellaneous petitions, if any, pending in this writ petition shall stand closed.

JUSTICE D.RAMESH
