WRIT PETITION No.33951 of 2025

ORDER: (Per Hon'ble Sri Justice Cheekati Manavendranath Roy)

This writ petition for habeas corpus under Article 226 of the Constitution of India has been filed by the petitioner, who is the wife of the corpus by name D. Manohar, alleging that he was illegally taken into custody by the 3rd respondent – Station House Officer of Vemula Police Station, YSR Kadapa District, on 02.12.2025 and till now he is not produced before any Court and thereby, prayed to direct the respondents to produce him before the Court and to set him at liberty.

2. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned Assistant Government Pleader attached to the office of the learned Advocate General appearing for the respondents.

3. Learned Assistant Government Pleader, on written instructions, submits that initially a report was lodged with the 3rd respondent - Station House Officer of Vemula Police Station relating to theft of sheep against some unknown persons and the said report was registered as a case in Crime No.149 of 2025 for the offence punishable under Section 303(2) of BNS. He further submits, on written instructions, that during the course of investigation of the said crime, it was found that the corpus herein, by name D. Manohar, along with four others committed the said offence and as such, the 3rd respondent arrested the corpus in connection with the above crime on 04.12.2025 and thereafter, he was produced before the Judicial Magistrate of First Class, Pulivendula, on 04.12.2025 itself and was remanded to judicial custody and he is presently lodged in Sub-Jail, Pulivendula. Learned Assistant Government Pleader has placed on record the written instructions received by him to that effect.

4. Therefore, when the corpus was arrested by the police in connection with a crime registered against him and when he was remanded to judicial custody on his production before the concerned Magistrate, it cannot be said that he has been in illegal detention.

5. Therefore, in view of the aforesaid submissions made by the learned Assistant Government Pleader and the written instructions produced by him, the writ petition is closed. However, the corpus and the petitioner, who is his wife, are at liberty to take appropriate steps to move for bail in the concerned Court.

As a sequel, interlocutory applications, if any pending, in this case shall stand closed. There shall be no order as to costs.
