Counsel for the Respondent : -----

Petition under Section 151 CPC is filed praying that in the circumstances stated in the affidavit filed in support of the petition, the High Court may be pleased to stay of all further proceedings in the F.C.O.P.No.333 of 2025 on the file of the Family Court, Nellore, Pending disposal of TRCMP No. 421 of 2025, on the file of the High Court.

The court, while directing issue of notice to the Respondents herein to show cause as to why this application should not be complied with, made the following order.(The receipt of this order will be deemed to be the receipt of notice in the case). The Court made the following

ORDER

Heard Sri P.Mallikharjuna Rao, learned counsel for the petitioner.

Perused the contents of the affidavit filed by the petitioner.

The averments in the affidavit filed by the petitioner prima facie shows that the petitioner is none other than the wife of the respondent/husband, due to the matrimonial disputes between both the parties, the petitioner/ wife is residing separately at Ongole at her parents' house along with her two female children.

Learned counsel for the petitioner would contend that the respondent/husband filed F.C.O.P.No.333 of 2025, before the Family Court, Nellore, seeking dissolution of marriage, under Section 13(1) (ia) (ib) of Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 and the same is pending for adjudication.

Learned counsel for the petitioner would further contend that the petitioner/wife has been residing separately at Ongole in her parents' house and the distance between the Ongole and Nellore is approximately 150 Kms and it is very difficult for the petitioner/wife to attend the divorce case proceedings before the Family Court, Nellore, on each and every adjournment without any male assistance and that she is constrained to file the present transfer petition.

Perused the record.

Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner and for the reasons mentioned in the accompanying affidavit, there shall be an interim stay of all further proceedings including the appearance of the petitioner, i.e., the respondent in F.C.O.P.No.333 of 2025, before the Family Court, Nellore, seeking dissolution of marriage, till 29.01.2026.

Learned counsel for the petitioner is permitted to takeout personal notice to the respondent through Registered Post with Acknowledgment Due and file proof of service before the Registry.
