

HIGH COURT OF ANDHRA PRADESH AT AMARAVATHI

M.A.C.M.A.No.485 of 2022

PROCEEDING SHEET

Sl. No	DATE	ORDER	Office Note
05.	28.07.2025	CGR, J I.A.Nos.1 and 2 of 2022 I.A.No.1 of 2022 is filed seeking to condone delay of 353 days in filing the appeal and I.A.No.2 of 2022 is filed seeking to condone delay of 2291 days in re-presenting the appeal. Learned counsel for the applicant while referring to the reasons assigned to the respective affidavit filed in support of both interlocutory applications, contended that delay in filing occurred due to ill-health and further delay in re-submitting is on account of ill-health coupled with shifting of Office of learned counsel appearing for the claimant. It was argued that delay was neither willful nor wanton. Claimant has preferred the present appeal seeking enhancement of claim. No counter-affidavit has been filed opposing these applications. Having regard to the reasons and considering the plea raised in the respective interlocutory applications, these applications are ordered on condition of appellant forgoing the claim of interest for the aforesaid period of delay. M.A.C.M.A.No.485 of 2022 Appellant filed memo of proof of service indicating that notice sent to respondent Nos.1 and 2 were returned with endorsement 'addressee cannot be located'. Notices were taken out on the addresses, as mentioned in the cause title before the Tribunal and that the said respondents remained ex parte even before the Tribunal. Therefore, notices are deemed to be served. Admit. List the matter for hearing in usual course. Meanwhile, Registry is directed to call for records. CGR, J KBN
