CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE DR. ANSHUMAN
ORAL ORDER

3 31-01-2026 Heard learned counsel for the petitioners and learned counsel for the Respondent-Patna Municipal Corporation.

2. The present writ petition has been filed for issuance of an appropriate writ/writs, order/orders, direction/directions for commanding the respondent authority to pay all the legal dues including arrears of pension and penal interest due to neglecting attitudes committed on the part of the respondent authority and the other admissible amount which are payable in accordance with law.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioners submit that in the present writ petition, there are in total 87 petitioners. Counsel submits that for the relief, individual representations are pending before the Patna Municipal Corporation on which, no order has been passed as yet. Therefore, without entering into the merits or demerits of the case, he submits that the petitioners be granted liberty to file a fresh representation before the Patna Municipal Corporation, and the Patna Municipal Corporation upon considering the merits of their representations, pass an order within a specified period of time.

4. Learned counsel appearing for the Respondent-Patna Municipal Corporation on the other hand submits that the petition is defective. He submits that the copy of the petition supplied to him contains 90 petitioners. He further submits that in para 1, prayer has been made for grant of legal dues including arrears of pension and penal interest to the petitioners, whereas, in para 3, it has been stated that some of the petitioners are working and some of them retired. With this pleading, he submits that the pension cannot be paid to employees who are still working. In this view of the matter, counsel submits that this writ petition is defective and be dismissed on this ground alone.

5. This Court, without entering into the merits or demerits of the case, and in light of the submissions made by learned counsel for the petitioners who is also not pressing the matter on its merits, grants liberty to the petitioners to file their individual representations in respect of their grievances before the Patna Municipal Corporation within a period of 30 days from today and the Patna Municipal Corporation within a period of six months shall consider the representation of the petitioners phase-wise and then pass a reasoned and speaking order in the light of their representation. It is made clear that those persons who are retired, their representation be disposed off at the earliest prior to those who are in service.

6. Accordingly, with the aforesaid direction, this writ petition stands disposed off.
