Parmeshwar Prasad Kashyap And Anr. versus Smt.Mongra Bai

Order on Board

03/02/2026	Mr. Rudra Pratap Dubey, Counsel for the Appellant. Ms. Harneet Kaur, Counsel for Respondents No. 1, 2(a) to 2 (e) and 3. Mr. Anand Gupta, Dy. G.A. for the State. Perusal of the order-sheets reveals that on 18.08.2025, submissions were made by the parties that they had amicably settled their dispute. Considering the said submission, the appeal was directed to be listed before the Additional Registrar (Judicial) on 25.08.2025 for recording the statements of the parties, with a further direction to file an application for compromise duly reduced into writing.

	On 25.08.2025, the parties appeared before the Additional Registrar (Judicial) and their statements were recorded, except that of appellant No. 2, namely Abhuday Kumar. An application under Order 22 Rule 3 of the CPC, along with the deed of compromise, was also filed, however, the signature of appellant No. 2 is conspicuously absent on the said compromise deed. Learned counsel for the respondents contends that in the absence of the statement as well as the signature of applicant No. 2 on the settlement deed, the compromise cannot be treated as complete. She, therefore, prays that a date be fixed for recording the statement of appellant No. 2. Per contra, learned counsel for the appellants submits that at the time of recording of the statements and filing of the compromise application, it was agreed between the parties that appellant No. 2 is residing outside the State of Chhattisgarh for earning his livelihood for which he could not appear. Since appellant No. 1 has agreed to the compromise, there would be no

Considering the fact that one of the appellants has neither put his signature on the compromise deed nor has his statement been recorded, it is directed that the appeal be listed before the Additional Registrar (Judicial) on 17.02.2026, and appellant No. 2, namely Abhuday Kumar, is directed to remain present on the said date for recording of his statement. List the case before this Court on 19.02.2026. Sd/- (Bibhu Datta Guru) Judge
